Author Conversations

Saturday 24th October 10am

Kim Kelly is an award-winning historical novelist, literature academic and fellow Central Westerner. With her latest book, Dust and Wonder, takes readers into the magic of one of her favourite places on earth –Jenolan Caves.

Join Kim for a talk about how local history and the natural beauty of our region inspire her fiction, taking the people, places and history of Australia around the world. Praise for Dust and Wonder: 'A compelling, gorgeously written novel.'
