WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE LIBRARY?

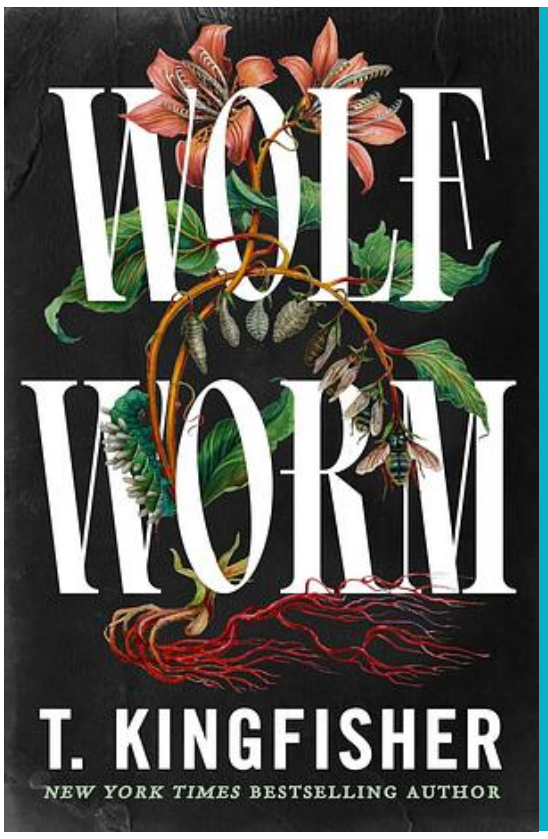

FROM CATALOGUE TO COLLECTION!

Born into a world on fire, Godling Hekate has never known safety. After her parents are on the losing side of the war between the ruling Titans and new Olympian Gods, Hekate is taken by her mother Asteria to the Underworld, where Styx and Hades agree to raise her. Meanwhile, Asteria is pursued across the world by Zeus and Poseidon and, to escape their clutches, transforms herself into an island in a stormy sea. Orphaned and alone, Hekate grows up amongst the horrors and beauties of the Underworld, desperate to find her divine purpose and a sense of belonging in the land of the dead. But when immortal war breaks out again, threatening to destroy everything from Mount Olympus to the Underworld itself, the Goddess of witchcraft and necromancy is the only one who can bring the deadly conflict to an end...

BOOK REVIEWS - WOLF WORM BY T. KINGFISHER

Deliciously creepy, wolf worm is filled with bugs, and all manner of other creepy crawlies. With delightful descriptions of the macarbe, T Kingfisher asks: What would happen if a parasite preyed on a vampire?

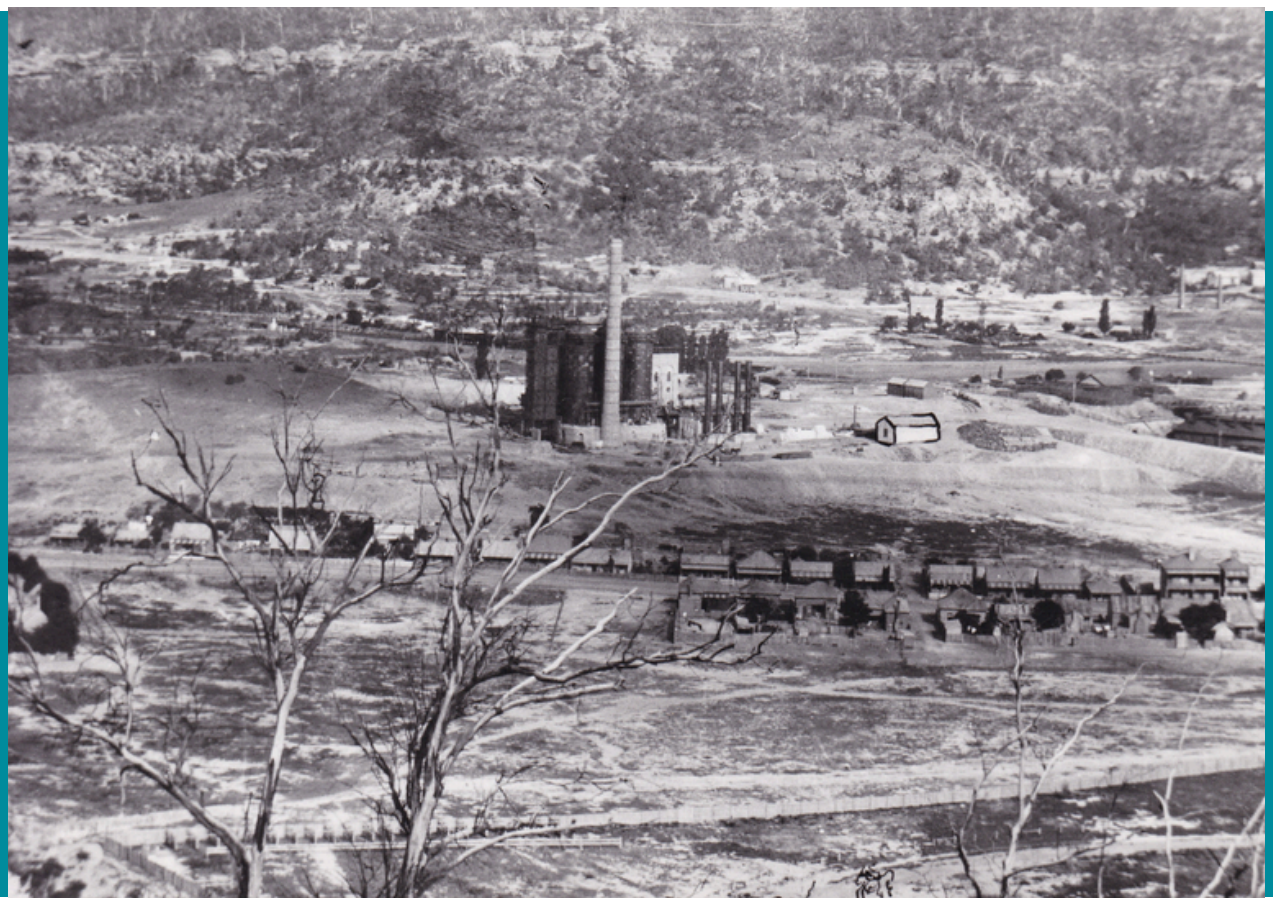

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH: ANTHONY HOROWITZ

Anthony is one of the most prolific and successful writers working in the UK – and is unique for working across so many media. Anthony is a born polymath; juggling writing books, TV series, films, plays and journalism. Anthony is responsible for creating and writing some of the UK's most beloved and successful television series, producing the first seven episodes (and the title) of Midsomer Murders.
